

THE 'NITED CLOCKWORK POSTAL SERVICE NEWS-LETTER
APRIL 14, 18xx
Volume 1, Issue 10

REPORT NOW FOR DUTY!

Of late, it may seem the the 'Nited Clockwork Postal Service has been a bit remiss. Though we intend the search for Werk-Books 2.0 (and feel it is sorely needed!), other things have claim our time and focus. These items will be spoken of at length in these pages. Still, as my time is in short supply (and there is much I wish to do), I wish to announce a very special job op'ning at the office. I wish to have a news-letter story and reports person at the office. As I am busy filing and searching and sorting through mail, this worker would go to events during the week, write stories, and take pictures. These pictures and stories would then be printed in the news-letter. Clockworks only, please? We are the 'Nited Clockwork Postal Service, after all. ~ fin

FIRST GIRL GENIUS BALL

As part of the effort to include more Steamlands news in the UCPS News-Letter, a friend of mine by the name of Sergeant Tick-tock (who is not me at all!) went to the first Girl Genius Ball at New Wulfstadt last night. The Ball lasted from 7:00 pm until well into the night. At all times, there were twenty-two or more people, and dancers cycled in and out of the event throughout. As well, some highlights were the dance having at least two Baron

Photo of the event by the latest camera known to man or machine! It needed people to stand still – which they didn't. Wulfbacks (when asked about this, Baron Wulfback replied “Nein. It was Fraulein Dagger dressed as me”) and music played by Tao Mist Walker. If you didn't have a chance to attend last night – there is always next year! Please write to W. Blitzen for details ~ fin

The Garden Grows Again! Book Reviews In The News

The Gas-lit Garden is back!

Who doesn't like flowers? Or whole gardens full of them? The Gas-lit Garden is making its way into the hands of readers – in the form of a chapter a week. New chapters may be found every day after Friday only at ~

Next Monday, I review The Pig-Keeper's A-a-a ... um ... a story based on the tale The Swineherd. The new story is different in that it has more steam – which the first one doesn't – because pigs don't have steam most of the time. If you like old fairy stories like I do, please check here next Monday : <https://werksfromtheironroad.com/nikas-bazaar-books/> next Monday. Thank you!

Letters From My Mailbox

Dear Nika:

Did you know there is a lack of clockworks in the Steamlands?

Signed,

Ticked-Off

Dear Ticked:

Tell me something I don't know, Ticked. For any dolls out there, you need not be alone. Two groups I know of just for you are the UCPS (ask me about this) and The Dolls of Second Life (ask Miss Fitch Lekvoda). As well, if you are a doll and like to dance, you might want to visit The New Crystal Rose airship in Cal'don for Miss Fitch's weekly dances. We gotta stick with each other!

Most Sincere I Remain,

Nika

Thank you! ~ fin

I'm Booked!

It's true! I will be speaking on April 19, 18xx about writing for Fant'sy Faire! I know a little bit about writing, you see? My fave'rite letter to write is the letter P. It's like an O and a D and a B and even an I – so when you write P, you get lots of writing practice. Practice makes perfect, you know? Thank you!
